

The child in the world of the book and media international conference

The Chair of the Library and Information Science at University of Lodz and Museum of the City of Lodz invite to participate in the international conference focused on the review and the assessment of the research on certain aspects of the childrens' and adolescents' reading culture at the beginning of the twenty-first century.

Conference planned on 10 – 11th may 2012, at City of Lodz, Poland

The aims of the conference are:

- the review and the assessment of the research on certain aspects of the childrens' and adolescents' reading culture at the beginning of the twenty-first century,
- the review and the assessment of the research on the impact of media on the formation of the younger generation reading culture,
- the discussion on the competitiveness of the new media to the books,
- the analysis of the contacts between children and youth with a book and media,
- exchanging experiences in the practical use of the modern technologies and the forms and methods of work with children and youth,
- the impact of modern technologies on the stimulation of the reading interests,
- the overview of the practices of different types of libraries in the organization of the festivals promoting books and reading,
- the overview of the libraries and media activities initiating and developing the reading culture of the children with disabilities, and also with dislexia and disorthographia,
- the review of the current status and opportunities in the library interior design for children's library in the popularisation the cultural and the educational activities in the environment,
- the discussion on the potential use of academic libraries in promoting the reading culture in school-age children,
- the overview of the ideas and experiences in the use of the Internet for promoting reading interests and tastes,
- the inspiration for further scientific research on the culture of children and youth readership.

More info: www.dzieckoiksiążka.uni.lodz.pl

Please register your participation in the conference March 30th, 2012 at the latest.

The closing date for lecture submission is February 15th, 2012, and the closing date for full-text submission is March 25th, 2012.

The submission should include a title, abstract and 5 keywords. Please provide also a current photo in an electronic form (needed for post-conference materials) and an affiliation.

We inform, that there is a limited number of spaces.

All the information concerning conference matters is provided by

Agata Walczak-Niewiadomska, Ph.D., at: awniewiadomska@uni.lodz.pl conference hold by

The Chair of the Library and Information Science at University of Lodz
City of Lodz, 34a Jana Matejki str. * tel.: +4842 6355386 * www.kbin.uni.lodz.pl
Museum of the City of Lodz
City of Lodz, Ogrodowa 15 str. * tel.: +4842 6549015 * www.muzeum-lodz.pl partnership

honorary patronage

media patronage

